BOULDER, CO

University of Colorado police have barred four people from the CU campus because of their arrests in a protest against CIA recruiters last month.

Police said the four will be allowed on campus for official business, but they'll have to get police permission first. The four are Mark Fearer, 29; Michele Keranen, 23; Stanley Tolle, 31, and Mark Rolofson, 26.

Only one of the four has gone to court so far on charges stemming from the protest. He got a deferred six-month sentence.
